SPRINGDALE.

The Plumville Civil Liberty League met at Plumville Saturday evening at 7 o'clock and was highly and profitably entertained by local talent. The next meeting will be at Pleasant Hill Schoolhouse Saturday next at 7 p. m. Good speakers will be there, and every member of the League is expected and urged to be present, as important business will be transacted.

Mr. C. C. Degman returned Saturday from Russellville, O., where he met his old comrades of the Seventieth Regiment in reunion. He is enthusiastic, if not extravagant, in his report of the affair, claiming this as the boss reunion of the season. Every street and every building-from Churches to stables (there were no bar-rooms)-were profusely decorated and even country residences for long distances out on every road vied with the town people in a display of Old Glory, in honor of the occasion and of welcome to the old veterans. Sixty of the Seventieth answered to roll call, and there were many visiting comrades. The people were out in such numbers that standing room was at a premium. The Russellville Band, a fine choir, a quartet of splendid singers, String Band and Glee Club furnished music galore; several elegant speeches were made by able men. The campfire Thursday night lasted from 6:30 until 11:15, and was a feast of itself, many amusing stories of the camp, the march and spersed with charming music. The banquet in the Park Friday noon was a "dandy," the inner man of some six hundred people being satisfied, and there were good things to spare. The boys were invited back next year, but not wishing to impose on good nature the invitation was declined and that of Aberdeen accepted, where the reunion of the glorious old Seventieth will convene the last Thursday and Friday in October, 1901. Six deaths since last meeting were reported to the Secretary.

Mr. Layson Tarr of Millersburg and Miss Jeanette McFarland of Olathe, Kas., will wed on November 5th.

Democratic House in 1888 Smothers Anti-Trust Bills.

WAGE-EARNERS HAVE MORE MONEY.

Clothing and Head Apparel-Farmers Pay Less Interest on Lonns -Cotton Planters Prosper.

Chicago, Oct. 24.-Chairman Hanna's outspoken declarations on the trust question prove that during the two terms of President Cleveland not a thing was done to regulate trusts. 'Sixteen anti-trust bills," says Senator Hanna, "were introduced in the democratic house in 1888, but not one was reported-not even 1 to 16." It is found, also, that Mr. Olney, Cleveland's attorney general, who is now quoted as a great democrat, declared the Sherman law to be "unconstitutional and void," although it has since been sustained by the courts. The New York World said of Olney, January 3, 1894: "It is a disgrace to the administration to continue him office." But he was kept there.

MONEYED WORKINGMEN.

Wage-Earners Buying Homes, Better Clothing, Hats, Caps and Gloves. Chicago, Oct. 24.-Chicago real es-ate men are furnishing excellent evidence of prosperity. E. A. Cummings, one of the most prominent business men of the city and head of one of the leading real estate firms, says: "There have been more sales of real state to wage-earners during the last wo years than there were during the vhole preceding five years." B. A. Fessenden, another large real estate dealer, says:

"The feature of the Chicago real estate market is the sale of a large number of small homes and sites to workingmen. Low-priced, well-built, modern houses are being sold rapidly."

Want the Best Clothing.

Chicago, Oct. 24.-Leo Wampold, junior member of the firm of Cahn, Wampold & Co., one of the largest wholesale clothing firms in the United States, said to-day relative to the clothing trade:

"In the wholesale clothing trade a great many more men are employed by practically every house in the country. The colume of business has increased greatly in the past three years, but the volume of increase has been greatest in the demand for better and higher priced goods." Better "Hatted" Than Ever Before.

Chicago, Oct. 24.-George H. Green, one of the principal factors in the firm of M. Gimbel & Sons, wholesale dealers in bats, caps, gloves and mittens, says of business conditions:

"Throughout this line of trade the forces of men employed are much larger than hey were four years ago. It includes everybody from elevator boys to highpriced salesmen, and I think the increase is on an average 33 1-3 per cent. more. These men all have had increases in wages over what they got four years ago."

ILLINOIS COAL PRODUCTION. Coal production in this state, which averaged little more than 17,000,000 tons annually during the Cleveland administration, has reached an average of 21,000,000 tons annually during the McKinley regime. Wages for digging coal were forced down to 25 cents per ton by democratic depression, but they have not mounted as high as 49 cents per ton.

OREGON'S HOP CROP.-The Oregon hop crop has increased 10,000 bales over last year. Hops are selling rapidly at 14 and 14% cents per pound, and a few sales at 151/2 cents, as against a range of from four to six cents in 1895 and 1896.
